

PRESIDENT LORA'S MESSAGE

Last Sunday was a very successful day for our "Rotary Information Booth" at the Farmer's Market! PP Patricia arranged the day and PP Tony decorated the booth with all his awesome displays from his Presidential year. Thanks to both of them for a great job....also thanks to PP George, Dave, Ray, Joe, Donna and PP Avi for their help that morning. Not only did we give out plenty of Rotary Info but we were also able to give out flyers for our Wine & Food Tasting event which is right around the corner!

Please try and make an extra effort to be at our meeting August 18th when our District Governor Jim Allison will be joining us to "Sing the Rotary Song".

Sri Lanka Day is the weekend of August 6th...Jay & Theresa Liyanage would love to have some Denville Rotarians join them! Please contact Jay if you would like more information.

ROTARY "DANCERS" NEEDED

How do we admit a new member?

The Proposer (any Denville Rotarian in good standing) completes Section A of the R.I. Membership Proposal Form (MPF) and gives it to the Secretary. The Secretary gives the MPF to the Club President, who calls a special Board meeting.

The Board approves the MPF and the Secretary informs the Proposer and notifies the Past President's group.

A member of the Past President's group meets with the proposed new member and (a) provides Rotary information, (b) gets the prospective member's signature in Section B of the MPF, and (c) returns the completed MPF to the Secretary.

The Secretary sends out the "seven-day letter" to all members in good standing. Assuming no adverse comment to the "seven day letter" the new member pays fees and dues.

The President schedules induction of new member.
