

Denville Rotary Street Festival

Sunday June 3, 2012 11am-7pm No rain date
Set up at 8am, cars off the street by 10am

For 31 years, the Denville Rotary has produced the premier street festival along the beautiful tree line streets of this lovely old-fashioned town, in highly affluent Morris County. The town is filled with quaint shops, cozy restaurants, and spas. The event draws people from three bordering counties as well as New York and Pennsylvania. We provide an enjoyable high quality experience for the whole family, including stage produced entertainment, a Chili Cook-off Contest, Beer Garden, 50/50 tickets, rides, gourmet foods such as roasted spit-fire barbequed beef, fresh seafood served at an outdoor café, and many other crowd pleasing events. Admission and parking is free. Our thorough advertising provides coverage in many newspapers, storefronts, cable TV, radio, internet and flyers along the busy road intersections. Past attendance has been 20,000 plus. Wide streets provide easy drive-up and unloading.
